THE DREADED WHEEL.

Severe Arraignment of the Bike by a Pennsylvania Judge.

Philadelphia, December 28.—Judge Yerkes of Bucks county, sitting in the Quarter Sessions' Court to-day, declared solemnly that the bicycle is a promoter of crime. He said it is astonishing the amount of crime that grew out of the bicycle craze, and, at least, one-third of the business of the criminal court was made up by persons who were led astray by some connection with the wheel.

The case that evoked these astonishing statements was that of William H. Freeman, who had just pleaded guilty to forging the name of his employer J. H. Hinkson, a grocer, to a check for $56.75, with which to get cash to buy a bicycle.

Hinkson in his testimony, evidently coincided with the views of the judge. Hinkson said, dolefully, that he could sit at his front window and count dozens of persons riding merrily past who owed him grocery bills.

A dealer was next called to the stand and swore that Freeman purchased the bicycle from him and had endorsed a check for $56.75, signed by Hinkson, as first payment, and asked to be given the difference in cash. At this testimony the prisoner sat down, utterly collapsed and admitted that he had attempted to deceive the Court. His sentence was nine months' imprisonment.

TOO MUCH FREIGHT.

Another Steamer Wanted on the Pacific Mail Line.

Cotton for China and cotton for Japan is crowding the steamers of the Pacific Mail and Occidental and Oriental steamship companies. Factories have been established near Kobe and Shanghai, and the Orientals are taking our raw products only to send them back as manufactured goods. Hundreds of tons of general merchandise were left behind by the China, and the Belgic, which sails in a few days, cannot carry the stuff on account of her engagements for raw cotton.

The Chinese merchants are exasperated because they cannot get their goods shipped, and there is some talk of chartering a tramp steamer in order to send on their consignments. It is about time that the Pacific Mail put on an extra boat.—The Call.

Information for Tourists.

A passenger by the last Colonial steamer was met on the dock by a Milesian American friend, who resides in Honolulu. As the pair waited to have the newcomer's gripsack scrawled over with chalk marks by the Customs Inspector at the gate the stranger remarked to his friend "Do you 'ave much rain 'ere?" RAINIER me boy, gallons of it, just come up to the Anchor Saloon where they keep it always, clear and cool. We'll just be in time for lunch too and that's the only place in town where they serve it up in proper style with a glass of RAINIER BEER to equilibrialize the solids.—They went!
